

Kristin Schirmer is back from a fantastic sabbatical stay at OECD

April 1, 2025 | Kristin Schirmer

Hi everyone, I am back from a fantastic sabbatical stay at the Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) in Paris.

I joined as a member of the Environment Health and Safety Programme (EHS) within the Environment Directorate, where I supported various activities within OECD's test guideline and hazard assessment programmes. It was amazing to see how OECD works from the inside out and to meet so many dedicated colleagues who make OECD as impactful as it is. I am happy to share and answer any questions that you might have. And I am thankful for being given this opportunity
